GAME FEATURES

The Indians are attacking!

Tomahawks and arrows are flying towards you from all sides. Snakes, scorpions and condors are coming after you too. Your only protection is your rifle. How long can you defend your ranch?

Indians on horseback are charging. Others are hiding behind the drifts and cactuses. Beware! Aim your rifle with precision.

It's a condor. Shoot! Don't miss or the condor will drop an egg and when it hits the ground, snakes and scorpions will be hatched. Deadly enemies. Run away!

After succeeding in evading the second Indian assault, there is a break of 30 seconds. Now comes the time to show your skill. Lasso cows, horses and rabbits to cheer yourself up.

Catch them all, to score bonus points.

From the fifth Indian attack, the speed of tomahawks and arrows becomes much faster. Are you able to evade the raid?
